

your car so I can explain to you what's happening. He replied something like, "We are not on the same team, you guys are a bunch of a--holes!" He then walked towards his vehicle. I explained to him this officer stopped him for weaving and checked to make sure he was able to get home safely, that's it. He replied, "He is going to my house! He's fine to drive! Let him go!" I said, "The officer determined your friend is not impaired and he will be able to leave soon." The official shouted at his friend, "Just go to my house! Go to my house! Go ahead and leave!" I told the driver he is not allowed to leave just yet and advised the official he was interfering with the traffic stop. I said, I will walk over there and relay the message. The official said, "I don't trust you guys, you're a bunch of a--holes!" "You guys are harassing us!" I said, "Let us do our job and soon you guys will be back to your house having a good time." I notified dispatch to have Sgt. [REDACTED] arrive to the scene. He then walked across the street towards his friend's vehicle. I ordered him to stop, but he turned to me and said, "I'm a Village Official, I can go anywhere!" He continued walking past me and was now between [REDACTED] squad and the violator's vehicle. I told him, "We are conducting a traffic stop and I am ordering you to return to your vehicle." I said, "Please, you are putting me in an uncomfortable position and I don't want to arrest you for obstructing! Please don't make me arrest you." [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I notified dispatch to have Sgt. [REDACTED] arrive on scene code 2, to help protect myself and calm the official down. He asked me what my name was and told me to call Chief Williams here now! I told him my name was Officer [REDACTED] and I am having my supervisor respond to the scene. A brief time later, I noticed when Sgt. [REDACTED] arrived on scene, the official crossed the street towards his vehicle. Again, the official's father called us a--holes. Both the official and father stayed at their vehicle. I informed Sgt. [REDACTED] of what had happened. Sgt. [REDACTED] spoke with the subjects, while I returned to the offender's vehicle to assist [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] finished the traffic stop and the violator left the scene.
